Temporary Permit for Inspection and Registration Renewal

This temporary permit allows fifteen (15) days for the expired vehicle to be driven to the DMV for inspection and registration renewal. The vehicle owner is required to drive the vehicle to the nearest DMV during normal business hours and be on the most direct route to the DMV. If you are not on the most direct route, you may be cited by law enforcement. Vehicle owner must have Delaware insurance for the vehicle and present the valid insurance card to the DMV. The permit is only good for vehicles being driven in Delaware. If fifteen (15) days has passed since you obtained the verbal permit, you must call to obtain a new permit.

Please print and complete the Temporary Permit form in the link below to carry with you in the vehicle.
